

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

January 19, 1977

Dear Ben:

Before leaving the White House, I want to take a moment to thank you for your guidance and counsel during the two years I have been on the President's staff. I deeply appreciate the time you have taken to help me and the advice you have rendered.

It has been a privilege for me to work with you and I look forward to our continued friendship in the months and years ahead. My best wishes for happiness and success in the future.

With kindest personal regards,

Sincerely,

Douglas P. Bennett
Director
Presidential Personnel Office

Mr. Ben Evans
